CCM media Update

Our dear partners across the world,

All the very best for you in 2013! We have so many great promises in the Bible that help us to stay positive, sharing hope for which Christ is a base! And the best is still to come – meeting Him one day, face to face! This adds to our lives a right perspective!

Thankfulness

But for now, we want to stay focused on our Lord and implement some of the ideas that we believe He is a source of. 2012 was very good for our ministry and we are determined to be even closer to Him in 2013, read his will in many of decisions to come and make accepting His will over our own personal, egoistic choices - daily surrender.

Wow, what a plan! We need your prayers to accomplish that!

What would we like to accomplish in 2013?

I am sharing here just my personal dreams that, humanly speaking, are a logical “next steps” but I pray the Lord will reveal His will, open doors and direct priorities.

For the Radio (read more in Krzysztof’s article):

- increasing our audience even further by expanding technical coverage, getting positive responses for pending license expansion applications;
- Getting spiritual return to our Christian programs and channeling seekers to our follow-up programs
- In spite of an economic slowdown, having a stable advertisement income with a growth tendency :) that will help to finance other evangelistic projects.

For the Recording Studio:

- Finishing the renovation of the studio infrastructure, getting a new stream of clients as a result;
- Strengthening our young teams of software developers and content developers to meet all the needs of our evangelistic projects and of other ministries;

- Making the most of our media experience in training others to allow further growth; continuing to move towards realising our vision of a Multimedia Training Center and its new infrastructure;
- Using all the quality Christian films records and streamed programs that we distribute to influence even more people towards Christ;

For the Internet Evangelism side (conducted by volunteers and Studio DR)

- Encouraging our e-coaches (over 200!) to stay passionately involved; by praying, organizing workshops, conferences, personal encounters, joint vacations, attending international events and really caring for each one of them;

- Updating all the present tools (over 10 options, now) to make them looking fresh and adopt them to the advances of the Global Internet, replacing content, more videos, etc;
- Making a major jump into mobile technology of ALL our tools, so that when it will come to Poland as a major preference – we shall be ready;
- Developing new innovations on a global scale –systems of monitoring/helping every seeker to grow spiritually, even on daily basis.
- Substantial involvement in a global Jesus.net movement, trying to set the very best, working models of effective, 21st century evangelism and disciple making processes by using all contemporary channels of communications and implementing them in all interested countries, based on Nationals...

Friends, now you know why we need your prayers!!!

Epilogue

The ministry has grown significantly in the last year. More people are involved than ever. But the real essence is to stay personally close to the Lord, daily searching for His guidance, be ready to be broken – so that He will be able to use us fully.

The great promise is 2 Chronicles 16, 9a: “For the eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him” Take it as my wish for you in 2013 and beyond.

Your prayers and support are a needed and appreciated part of what He is doing in Poland! We love you dearly and pray for you, too

Henryk.

Thank You LORD

CEO, Radio CCM & Radio FEST

A few days ago I received an e-mail from Henio asking me to share my thoughts on how I see our ministry developing in 2013. What follows are my thoughts and wishes for our future.

1. I would really like 2013 be at least as blessed as 2012.
2. It would be good to see the continued growth in audience numbers (at least passing 600,000 by January 2014).
3. That we will be able to meet our costs despite the predicted economic crisis, especially severe during the first three quarters of this year.
4. The devising of more intensive and effective ways for the promotion of our evangelisation efforts.
5. Finding ways to initiate programming that will have a marked influence on the lives of our listeners and their relationship with Jesus.
6. The realisation of our latest projects;
(a) CCM Youth, an Internet radio channel for teenagers, broadcasting from our transmitter in Oswiecim (Auschwitz).
(b) the opening of a second Radio FEST station
(c) finding ways to support and help Radio Fidelite in Niger.

In recent years (due to God's blessing and the excellent work of all the staff at our radio stations) we have entered radio's First Division in the most populated region of Poland. We would not have achieved this without your prayers bringing us God's enabling.

An outstanding aspect of our activities is a talented and very professional workforce, a team other radio stations can only dream about!

Leading, motivating and encouraging this team is no easy task. The extensive workload spread among so few people brings many day-to-day problems at all levels.

It is, therefore, extremely important that all our plans and visions are subjected to extreme scrutiny and analysis and continually bathed in prayer in order that they do not turn out to be merely human ambitions, illusions and a waste of time.

We most earnestly request your prayers for wisdom and courage in every decision we make and the maintenance of unflagging commitment during 2013 and all the succeeding years.

Krzysztof.

Letters

A random selection of mail received during December 2012

My soul is sick, my only desire is to die, I beg God to hear me. All I do turns into catastrophe and problems. I would gladly give my life to someone else who could use it better. Why won't God allow me to leave this earth? Several times I decided to commit suicide but, at the last moment, something pulled me back. My life has become a hell after earlier sins and now I must suffer. How can I get the release of death?
Anna, 22.

How to deal with fear and pain? For the past few months I have been obsessed with self-harming, somehow it brings me peace. So far, nobody has been able to help me. Sometimes I'm filled with envy, how can I stop doing this thing? Can God help?
Tomek, 14.

I am divorced, my wife has left me, this Christmas and I'm by myself and lonely. I would like to start new relationship, but a priest has rebuked me. I am asking you for advice – will you answer?
Rafal

Hi, I am 16 year old, I became a believer at the Oaza camps. But I am horrified to face fierce attacks on my faith from my mates. So many people, who call themselves believers are also against me. Many reject church because of some practices there. But it should not keep us away from God! I also see some problems, but I pray and want to grow in God. Please advise, how should I behave, deepen my faith, even when friends are laughing. What kind of arguments should I use to show others reality of God?
Iwona.

Hi, up till October 2012, I was following a "dead faith", but I had never any dilemma about God's existence. Then I was converted, now I have some doubts. Does the fact I am rejecting all life's pleasures for no good reason makes sense? Are such thoughts coming from Satan? Is he manipulating my life of faith? What defence can I have against such thoughts? Please, advise me, I am desperate for a good answer and your response will help me
Ilona.

How can I find my calling?
Stefan.

How is it with God? I first heard about Him just three days ago, on your website. I spent 3 years in prison, still, always wanting to love everybody around me. I was sentenced to 25 years, and it took 3 years to prove me not guilty. How could He allow that?
Martha, 22.

I do not understand what is happening around me. If Jesus is really alive, why does He select some people to help and not others? And He has not helped me, even when I was begging? Why does He allow me to suffer if He loves me?
Zosia, 21.

Hi, I live with my boyfriend, we have been deeply love for more than one and a half years. Is it OK to have sex if it comes from a true commitment, not just an adventure or "testing"?
Marta, 19.
