CCM media Update

Dear Friends of our ministry in Poland,

Once again, thank you for all your prayers! We see it so clearly - the Lord is daily answering our prayers! So, when we see some great outcomes, it is because of His intervention and involvement... but your prayers are a contribution that makes a significant difference.

Looking For God (Jesus.net)

Some of you wonder what our connection is with Jesus.net. Well, some time ago the French friends who started the "Looking for God" (LFG) web site and our Dutch partners, who are behind "Why Jesus?" on line training miraculously acquired a great Internet domain name, "Jesus.net", and have renamed our whole evangelistic structure Jesus.net.

We, the Polish language coordinators have named it in Polish "Szukajac Boga" - "Looking For God". This is now the name for entire Polish evangelistic platform and also for its first module, a website introducing seekers to the gospel.

To complicate things even more -currently in Poland we run, in parallel, two versions of "Looking for God". It helps us to compare the effectiveness of some changes that we introduce to the system, aimed at ensuring the people are better aware of how serious a decision is and what consequences are to be expected.

It has lowered the number of people who click on the "I have prayed the prayer accepting Christ" button, but the quality of correspondence with those who stay is much improved.

In Poland we have developed additional follow-up tools in conjunction with many of our International partners. It seems that Poland is, in some ways, more advanced in preparing e-coaches and also in the number of follow-up tools we offer.

We want to share our experience with all the other countries involved in the Jesus.net International movement. This is why we meet regularly in as small leadership team of six or seven persons once a month, in Paris or Amsterdam, (the next meeting in Poland!). It grows beautifully, in great unity and anticipation, as Jesus.net Foundation.

Studio developments

We are in a middle of a major refurbishment of our Wisla music recording studio. The first stage is to replace its ventilation/heating/air purifying system and we are just in the middle of the process. One of our Board members, Jerzy, has a company that deals with this kind of hi-tech projects and he is kindly using his staff to do the job. Just incredible! Please, watch the before/after photos. This stage is due to be completed by 15 July.

Studio Refurbishment - old ventilation ducts

New ventilation

The second stage is to redo interior of studio, update many of the installations and do some rebuilding. Completion dates not yet determined, but we hope to finish it before the end of 2012.

In a meantime, we must replace the roofing on our office space. Even though the house is not very old, pine martins have eaten most of the insulation and now we must replace it. :)

Multimedia creative team

We must develop a lot of quality film and multimedia content to meet the needs of our evangelistic tools. Filip (my son) is leading a small team of 5 young men who are devoted to this work. Just now, as I write, they are being trained by a well-known Polish professional television/film producer, so that their work will be of a high professional standard. We already have a small video studio that can be used for filming testimonials, spoken word or discussions, so soon I expect to see a flow of great, new concepts.

US Trip

Bogusia and I had the joy and privilege of visiting States during June. Again, a wonderful and very stimulating time, meeting old friends and making new ones. It was quite an intense time for us, 14 meetings in 6 cities, but we arrived home happy and ready for next loads of work. Thank you, Lord, for the gift of friendship and brotherly love!

Outback

Family centered programs are very important for us, as we see how many people, also Internet responders who struggle with their spouses or children. We believe that using God's principles makes life most effective and optimal, so we want to share that with all the people who are interested. We recently had a visit of Bill Hightower from our partners, Outback Mobile, and met in a newly finished house purpose-purchased and remodeled by our close associates, e-coaches and mentors Jacek and Ela. This house has 10 double rooms and will be a place for dealing with couples having troubles and looking for solutions in the Bible.

Radio CCM

We had a visit of a US consultant on radio advertisement sales, Pat Bryson, for four days of training; it was Pat's second visit. We believe it helps to continue the growth of Radio revenue, but we always count on the Lord for the final outcome.

Epilogue

As we see so much blessing in the ministry, we find we need even more trained volunteers to deal with all the new openings. Focusing on helping our present volunteers and finding new volunteers has become my objective.

Please, continue to pray for us and our various ministries and their impact on the lives of people, also all the resources we need to maintain them and expand them.

We commit you to the Lord! You are a needed and appreciated part of what He is doing in Poland!

Henryk.

Thank You LORD

Family home means... an oasis

The favourite memory from my childhood is... family summer vacations.

My best memory from school is... acting out the French revolution.

I realized I had become an adult when... I was asked to make a speech when leaving school.

The one book that changed my life was... "Witnessing with Confidence" by Rosalind Rinker.

In the kitchen... I like to wash up (Sundays only), but always to eat!

The thing that irritates me most in others is... arrogance

The thing I value most is... my violin.

Music... is more than a hobby. At it's best music is, for me, a means of communication with God.

Future... Happy people around me, worshipping the Lord in unity, and doing whatever pleases Him.

The one thing I'd like to be remembered for is... being faithful in the small things.

My real happiness... is discovering new things leading to the Truth.

I cannot imagine home without... a quiet corner.

The one thing I passionately avoid is... gossip.

My worst failing is... saying "no" when I'm needed.

One unfulfilled ambition is... touch typing.

In the near future, I plan to... rest and then create some order in my desk and garage.

Working in Radio is... -- although occasionally only -- a splendid opportunity of sharing convictions in a real life context .

Letters

A random selection of mail received during June 2012

I write because I cannot cope anymore. For as long as I can remember, I have been living in my own world; now, finally, I would like to leave this world but I do not know how. Once, a person who wanted to help me was surprised I could live so long in such isolation. Now I want to change that, Will God help me? I have no Internet at home, so I will respond only occasionally.
Pawel.

I really want to learn to know Jesus. What to do?
Anna.

Does being a lesbian exclude me from any chance of a good relationship/contact with God?

Aneta.

I have problems that overwhelm me; I am afraid of myself and sometimes think about a suicide. I even have the pills ready. I would really like to talk to someone.

Zofia.

I am looking for God in books, in people, in everyday life, everywhere; but so far I have not found anyone who has an authentic relationship with God. Instead, I was offered written prayers, boredom and Sunday theatre performing every Sunday in a church. I do not want to repeat these same prayers without limit, this only increases my frustration. I know God exists, He shares every day with me but is still a stranger to me. If you know God, please, help me to find Him, too.
Tomek.

I have been looking for God for 40 years, but the more I search, the less I see Him. The harder I search, the less I find Him. Is there a way to change this pattern?

Robert.

Is God condemning me because I do not go regularly to church? I am not His enemy, I do not fight with church or the Gospel, I know God is stronger. I am a nurse and try to serve people with love above and beyond the dictates of my training. Is this enough?
Marta.

I am bankrupt, how can God help?
Andrzej.
