CCM media Update

May was another very good month, here are some of the highlights.

European Leadership Forum (ELF) in Wisla, Poland.

750 people from 44 countries came to Wisla, for a major Christian conference. Some outstanding Christian teachers and scholars were teaching and meeting, networking and mentoring evangelical leaders from all over the continent and beyond. Apologetics and theories of Evangelism were much in focus. I was encouraged and stimulated even though I was very tired by the time it ended. (At least I didn't have the hassle of travelling. :)

At the Forum we were promoting the Jesus.net initiative and representatives of five countries declared an interest in developing a similar format in their own work. Now we pray for wisdom in speeding up the process of implementation as our approach differs a lot from the "standard" way that people are used to in their churches.

Catholic leaders training

As you all know, Poland is a predominantly Catholic country and 98% of all the seekers that come to our web pages are Catholics. There are some great revival movements (the largest one, Life and Light, was highly stimulated by Campus Crusade for Christ in late 70s). We try as much as we can to help and equip them move towards an integrated front in Evangelism. Another conference was held in Plock, where 60 Catholic leaders spent whole day being introduced to our strategies and materials. We believe that very soon most of our off-line discipleship programs, developed with our international partners, will be implemented in a mass scale within whole Catholic movement. We are greatly excited about it!

My nose surgery

On the special request of my dear wife, Bogusia – I went to have nose surgery that was to minimize my snoring :). I discovered, that today such processes are totally painless, now I wait to see if the effect will make my queen happy. (I still have another month of convalescence before the result becomes clear.)

Radio developments

I know it is hard to believe, but Radio Fest has again achieved a new audience record, 8% of the Silesian market share! We are now the Largest Local Station in Poland (!) Together with CCM network – we are no. 2 in whole Silesian agglomeration (!) Praise the Lord, we are overwhelmed by the goodness of our Lord and pray we shall turn these statistics into spiritual fruit.

Filip and Justyna

Yes, they are happy together after their honeymoon. Thank you for your prayers for Justyna's health – they are awaiting a date for surgery on her spine, this now appears to be the best solution. She goes to hospital on Wednesday June 11th (latest news). Please, pray for special grace for the surgery. As I'm sure you understand, it is our personal prayer priority at the present.

Henryk

Thank You LORD

I have a problem with completely committing my life to God and I feel I am constantly acting badly and I do not try hard enough. I go to confession every second week and after prayer and talking to a priest and confessing my sins, I feel much better; like God gave me another chance. I feel I want to start from the beginning, Jesus will direct my life, as I myself cannot do it properly. But soon this feeling of assurance disappears and I am once again sad, scared and in tears. I spend quite some time on the Internet reading testimonies of people who walk with God and I feel so jealous, they have found Him. Why it is so hard to trust fully God and commit my life to Him?
Maria.

This prayer (the prayer of commitment at the end of the Looking For God website) is now, for me, like a repetitive mantra. I would like to talk to someone directly about my life
Ania.

Hi, I would like to understand the meaning and mystery of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Why God had to give His most precious Son. As an almighty God, why He couldn't offer salvation to everybody directly?
Andrzej.

When I found your web page I thought, "this is something I've been searching for". In the past six months I've suffered with depression, I am just 15 and have no drive towards living. I tried number of times to start a relationship with God. When I started to pray I began to think there are so many people terminally ill, my troubles are nothing compared to their situation. I am often asking myself, "Why is He just watching me struggling with life?" Perhaps He has selected such life for me? I do not know what to think about it, particularly in such a difficult time for me. It is really important for me, so please, respond. I would like to strengthen my faith and be ready for the future
Agna.

My question is: If God loves me, why, at 18 years old, He has pushed me to become a social outcast? He should help me, if He cares.
Zbyszek.

Hi, I am 24 and for a number of years am struggling with problems that are only partially results of my behavior. I try to pray, but have a feeling that God has left me, I am weak and mocked by others. Do I really need to feel like a victim? How can I get out of it?
Mateusz, 24.
