CCM media Update

Dear Friends,

October has been another good month involving a lot of travelling.

Together with Krzysztof Budzisz I was in USA for numerous meetings, including one with our US board, New Europe Communications.

I must admit, this trip was very good for us. I was encouraged that all our long term friends and partners we had the privilege of visiting, (Moody Broadcasting, Pacific Garden Mission, ELF, HCJB, Focus on the Family) are working all the time and come with some great ideas for connecting contemporary society. We are not alone in our desire and efforts to progress, there are so many wiser people than ourselves who have this same aim and are happy to share their experience and resources. It was a real encouragement! Beside the joy of fellowshiping together and sharing our gratitude to God for His obvious involvement and blessing!

One of the highlights of last month was a whole day training conference with 15 Catholic senior priests, members of the Catholic revival movement, "Light and Life". We were invited to present our follow-up programs (Christianity Explored, Christian to the core, the Truth Project) and - - - they become enthusiastic! We felt the Spirit of the Lord there when we all, in tears, were thanking God for such great resources given to us by Him to connect with today's culture and share Christ with thousands (millions?). The materials they have been using up to the present are those given to them by Campus Crusade 35 years ago. What a joyful time it was! And we have already invitations to train leaders in big numbers in their localities. Gdynia

With Flossie McNeil, Director of Unshackled

Training conference with 15 Catholic senior priests will be the first-one, I believe.

Several of our teams are traveling now, often simultaneously, to train candidates for e-coaching and also provide training for potential small group leaders; almost every weekend there is something happening. In many places there is a “second wave” composed of people who attended a course now want to share it with their friends. We praise God for being allowed to see Him at work in this way.

Polish Board meeting

was held in Wisla in October, we went across all our reports, highlights, challenges. It is good to have a time of evaluation and a bigger perspective into what is happening, with a good advice from mature, godly people who oversee our ministry in Poland. The main outcome is – gratitude to the One who is the Author and Finisher of everything that is good. We are so happy to be in His team! The big topics we are considering is: going towards national, digital radio broadcasting with the multiple channels option (DAB+) (up to 12 separate channels technically possible), a training center to serve more International friends in media/follow up with our synergy approach and last, but a real priority, expanding our Internet evangelism tools, on-line and off-line.

NEC Board meeting

was this time in Nashville, we spent two whole days together to prayerfully plan for the future. We now have new member on our Board, Scott Pressly, an experienced financial specialist who already helps us to fine-tune our financial reporting, make it as clear, short and informative as possible and meet future as well as present standards.

We are all overwhelmed with the progress we have seen in the last 10 years, God has blessed and provided way beyond our asking or expectations. But this give us even more courage to keep the momentum and go forward with the new developments, reach out to more people to influence them in a measurable way towards Christ. A nice “extra” to our meeting was a private visit, arranged by our chairman, Allen Weed – with his friend, Michael W. Smith in his studio. Michel is a well know also in our country Christian singer and composer who conducts life of integrity. He is to come to Poland next June with Franklin Graham’s “Festival of Hope”. We had a very pleasant and stimulating time, finding Michael a humble, sincere follower of Jesus. We have also invited him to visit our studio in Wisla and record a song there, this would be a great “push” in our promotion.

Working visit

of Steve Webber, Director Christian Broadcasting Network (CBN) for Russia and Ukraine, (based for 22 years in Kiev, with son, Logan), and with Joshua Toepper from International Leadership Institute (ILI) for talks with our teams on the implementation of the discipleship program GROW in Russia. It was most stimulating time, with some great ideas emerging and really great fellowship. God is doing some mighty things in Russia as well! Steve is involved in Jesus. net evangelistic outreach, so we were talking a lot about our experience and thoughts how to maximize results. Our team is preparing a new, universal, extremely simple tool for e-learning (on-line follow-up) and we still hope to have it up and running by the end of this year (!).

A thing that has become most important for me recently is not just to talk of dreams and visions, strategies and plans – but rather implementation and improvements based on results. We know what we want to do and, so let’s do it! Our army of e-coaches (and small group leaders) is communicating with real people in need and this is the key, the essence and the focus! Tools are just tools and though they are important, we must keep the balance in our efforts to make sure we do not “move into the clouds”.

Epilogue

Life is very busy for us, more than ever. Yes, we have more leaders involved, but it’s never enough! Before the end of this year I plan to be twice more in the US. So please, pray for our health and strength! The great news is that we have received some of the

My great Friend and companion, always climbing up funding we were praying for! Thank you for your prayers, they make all the difference! As for today, we are still missing $160.000 to meet our International donations budget. Please, pray with us that it will be reached. If you would like to give, even small amount towards that, just write us a note and we shall inform you how to do it. We do not want to put any pressure on anybody, but if you want to have part in this work, you can do it. It is not to keep us afloat, but to increase the momentum and develop all the new projects that are in a pipeline. Thank you, Lord!

We love you dearly and pray for you, too.

Henryk.

Letters

A random selection of mail received during October 2013

Hi, have not been to confession for least for 5 years. I am afraid I will not be well received. I would like to come back to God. I am a sinner, but recently I am thinking a lot about God and my sinfulness, about confession and - perhaps - His call. I think about purpose of my life. Please, help me. Best greetings.
Adrian.

I am a sinner depraved with sex, I like it so much that I do it even with older men. Is there still a chance for me, to get to heaven? Am I totally hopeless and depraved with Satan taking full control over me?
Krzysztof.

I am really lost. I do not know how to escape from fear of my life in the future? How can I learn to love God more, also other people? How do I cope with the trauma of my childhood? How is it possible to live with the clear conscience? How to get quiet? How do I become a better mother, wife, daughter?
Maria.

How can I learn to love people? Be a good person? I do not have enough courage.
Anna.

I would like to talk seriously to someone about faith and God. Please, contact me.
Ewa, 18.

I have a question; what have done wrong in my life; does God still loves me, am I now better?
Zofia.

If we are all equally loved by God, how are we someone special?
Ryszard.

I have registered yesterday (on the Looking For God website) as "nobody" but then I thought, I really need help, my life is a distorted mess, I want to get hope and something to believe in, it is just a bad dream that I had. I was searching for help in many places, I cannot continue like this anymore, I am so glad I found your web page, normal, good people who want to HELP. I am scared.
Adam.

Would people, who have wounded me so deeply in my psyche, be punished by a righteous God?
Stefan.

I am full of doubts, I am lost, I need spiritual help. Will you assist me?
Andrzej.
