CCM media Update

In this Christmas season – we wish you refreshing of your spirit, discovering even deeper God's love revealed in Jesus and good family time, in His joy and peace.

CCMmedia team

Dear friends and prayer partners,

Another good month is behind us, and ahead even a better one.

Why better? Because we can still do something with all that time, new opportunities, people we will meet and new chance to discover even more the riches of the Bible. It surprises me that I am surprised that the Lord speaks to us in a more clearly way as soon as we really listen, this makes life exciting!

Radio CCM and Radio FEST

The audience figures went up, again, after a small drop in previous months. The financial situation of radio is stabilizing with more commercial income at the end of the year. How thankful we are to the Lord for that!

We are thinking about expanding our network in 2012, or at least starting the process. Krzysztof is considering two new places, all in the South of Poland. Rybnik with over 200,000 residents and Tychy, with some 180,000 people.

We would use existing programming, just add transmitters and reach more people. This is just one of our new 2012 projects.

Internet "Knowing God" website

Because Google raised their promotion charges and we decided to stay with our existing promotion budget, the number of new visitors to the website dropped noticeably.

So we increased our budget (thank you for your donations) and we are now back to consistently over 1,000 visits per day. It is frustrating when we see the results are so directly related to the expenditure, but it is clear that we are still a long way from saturating Poland with the information about possible resolving of your life situation by Jesus!

We launched seven new "landing pages" (Landing pages – are a simple web pages talking about subjects that interest lots of people, like : "I lost my job, what now?" or "How to get real friends" – not sounding religious at all and directing them to our main SzukajacBoga evangelistic page. We use the resources of the Billy Graham Association). We have big expectations connected with that. Thank you, Lord!

Follow-up modules

Follow-up is a real challenge. Hundreds of volunteers are involved. The critical point is to get people who already finish several on-line courses into a small group setup. There are tens of such groups happening even as I write. But there is always a need to for more. This is why we are constantly looking for new candidates for e-coaches and group leaders; the most recent such meeting was held in Poznan As the follow-up modules attract more and more people we have decided to run separate national conferences for each module.

Our general, national annual movement conference is planned May 11 – 13, 2012 but also one for "Christianity Explored leaders", "Christian to the core", "The Truth Project", "Outback", etc.. Just a natural next step in our growth.

US trip

Krzysztof and myself visited US during November. Every such trip is a great stimulation and encouragement, besides many practical arrangements we are always making.

With Jan at Pikes Peak

Krzysztof went first to Houston, visiting friends at KSBJ Christian Radio.

I had excellent meetings with Wes Griffin, leader of International Leadership Institute with whom we are partnering on "Christian to the core", and Jerry Twombly, an adviser/consultant for non-profit organizations. All those meetings will have a follow-up.

Then we had our New Europe Communications Board meeting in Colorado Springs. NEC is our US 501 (c3) structure, that helps to channel US funding to us without charging any overhead as all involved, serve as volunteers.

What a blessing! The Lord is multiplying our ministry in a great way, so our meeting was very joyful, too. But to whom much is given, from him much is required - we want to go forward and multiply results, being faithful stewards of God-given resources.

We have been thoroughly discussing all the plans and moves for 2012. In Colorado Springs we met with our faithful partners, "HCJB Global", "Focus on the Family" (with whom we do "The Truth Project"), and with Mike Dworak who used to be our HCJB radio adviser.

The final experience was sharing in Thanksgiving

Wes and Jerry

If you would like to help our ministry financially, we would be very thankful for your donation. 2012 is at hand and we must get all the project funding up from zero! The biggest need now is for promotion, so that we could reach new people and inform about God's plan for their life.

Letters

A random selection of mail received during October 2011

I've been married for two years, a believer for seven years and I'm active in my Protestant church. But I am addicted to pornography and masturbation. I need help.
Krzysztof.

Why are so many people, who say they believe in God, so evil?
Marta.

I am a blind person. I am very sensitive to people's feel/energy. I used to compensate it with holding crystals in my hand, but then I quit when I was told it has serious spiritual implications. Then I was holding in my hands a rosary and holy water, but it does not work. I want to be pure, but often when some people visit me I feel a strong negative tension. What would you advise me?
Zofia.

I want to be better equipped by Jesus to be His disciple and witness about Him in every day life. Can you advise?
Andrzej.

Where can I find the strength to believe? I am already tired.
Krystyna, 16.

I had a "break" in my relationship with God for two years, then I gave birth to my son and for several months everything was good. But recently again started not going to Holy Mass. That's twice I've missed this month. I am scared I'm backsliding, again. In the past, it started similarly. What should I do?
Maria.

Why it is that just Christians have the right faith? What are the proofs that God exists? Why does science contradict religion? Why do we call God a good Father when he allows disasters and sends people to purgatory? I want to believe in God, but such questions are deeply bothering me.
Andrzej.

I am a Catholic believer, a cultural person and I do not want to offend anybody. How should I behave when visited by Jehovah Witnesses? When I thank them and want them to leave, they take no notice. I am using a lot of medications; I should not get engaged in deep discussions. What do you advise?
Marta.

I would like to find someone trustworthy to talk to openly about my spiritual questions.
Tomek.

Why will the Church not forgive person who commits a suicide?
Antoni.
